1. The naturist's respect: to practise naturism is to respect oneself, others and the environment. In this serene setting, each minimizes the use of loud activities, reduces the speed of their car, rather takes to walking or cycling, respects the equipment and infrastructures, and adopts the values of an eco-citizen.
2. The concerns of a naturist: we are at your disposal if you have worries or questions. For instance, many parents are concerned about their teenagers becoming shy and nervous at ease with the nudity. We reassure you, we respect this shyness and Origan understands that they wear a sarong or towel (outside pool and beach of course)
3. Qualité Tourisme Mark: the commitment tourism quality assures you great holidays with the Tourism quality guarantee and all of its services. Having signed the tourism quality label, camping village Origan respects it and submits to a verification every 3 years.
